THE GOEBEL MURDER.

Trial of Those Accused Is Now on at Frankfort.

POWERS' CASE FIRST

Several Witnesses Examined, but the Testimony Was Without Any Sensational Feature—Public Kept from Court.

Frankfort, March 23.—Judge Moore convened court at 10 o'clock this morning. The prisoners, Caleb Powers, W. H. Coulson and John Davis, were brought into the courtroom and took seats by their counsel. The commonwealth witnesses were called, numbering 40. The name of Sergeant Golden was not on the list. At the conclusion of the call of the commonwealth witnesses County Attorney Polsgrove announced he was ready for the trial in the case of the commonwealth against Powers. Ex-Governor Brown read the warrant against Powers charging him with being accessory to the murder of William Goebel and asked a dismissal of the defendant on the ground the warrant was fatally defective in not alleging the crime was committed in Franklin county, and did not even show the offense to have been committed in Kentucky. County Attorney Polsgrove said the warrant followed the lines laid down in the criminal case, Judge Moore overruled the objection to form of warrant.

A squad of 75 extra police and deputy sheriffs guarded the outer entrance to the courthouse, while a file of soldiers stood at the door and passed on the credentials of persons entering the room. The general public being excluded by order of Judge Moore, only attorneys, relatives of the accused, witnesses and officers of the court are being admitted. Those admitted, however, soon filled the courthouse on the second floor of the building.

Lexington and Winchester companies, armed with Winchesters, were scattered through the various rooms. Not much more than an ordinary crowd was on the streets and there was no excitement.

Colonel T. C. Campbell and Arthur Goebel appeared at the courthouse at 9:30 o'clock. A few minutes later Ex-Governor John Young Brown, W. B. Ramsey, R. C. Kinkead and J. C. Sims, attorneys for the defense, arrived.

The defense announced ready for trial and called August Muninger, of Covington, an undertaker, as the first witness. He did not answer and an attachment against him was issued by the court on demand of the defense.

Ex-Governor Brown asked that the witnesses be excluded from the courtroom and Judge Moore ordered the witnesses to retire and admonished them not to talk to anybody on the outside.

Eph Lillard, warden of the Frankfort penitentiary, was the first witness sworn. He was with Senator Goebel when the latter was shot. He walked ahead of Goebel and was just entering the state house when the shot was fired. He turned back from the state house steps and saw what had happened. He then looked toward the executive buildings and saw that the second window of the corner room slightly raised. This was the office of the secretary of state. He thought the shot had been fired from this room. There were several other shots later, but did not come from the same place. The first shot was evidently fired from a rifle, while the others seemed to be from pistols and were not so clear and distinct as the first.

Upon being cross-examined by ex-Gov. Brown, Lillard said he saw somebody in the room from which the shot seemed to have been fired and he did not see anyone in the main door of or on the steps of the building at time of the shooting. When asked if he or Jack Chinn, who was with Goebel, drew pistols, he said, "I did not draw my pistol and I did not see Chinn draw one. I don't think he did."

There was a long wrangle here between the attorneys over the question whether the witnesses who have been examined might remain in the courtroom. The attorneys for the defense objected to allowing the witnesses to remain because many of them would be witnesses in the trials of Davis and Coulton later on, in which practically the same issues are involved. Judge Moore, however, ruled that the witnesses who had testified might remain.

Policeman Windgate Thompson was the next witness introduced. He was in the statehouse yard when the shooting occurred, but arrived as the crowd was carrying Senator Goebel out of the yard. He saw the armed men at the entrance to the executive building and recognized John Davis and Berry Howard among them.

Detective Dee Armstrong of Louisville said that after military authorities allowed detectives to enter the executive building, several days after the shooting he visited the various state offices for the purpose of securing the names of persons who were in the building at time of the shooting. He said Secretary Powers refused to tell him who was in the office of the secretary of state at the time of shooting and declined to say who was in charge, but said that he (Powers) was out of the city that day.

At 12:05 court adjourned till 1:30 p. m. Sargent F. Wharton Golden, who it was alleged would be the chief witness for the commonwealth, is said to be in the city but his whereabouts are being kept secret and it is not known at what juncture he is to be placed on the stand.

Calls on the President.

Washington, March 23.—Colonel Andrew Cowan, a merchant of Louisville, Ky., Samuel J. Roberts, editor of the Lexington Leader, John Marshall, Republican lieutenant governor of the state, all prominent Republicans and friends of Governor Taylor, called at the White House before the cabinet meeting today and had a half hour's conversation with the president on the political situation in Kentucky.

On leaving the executive mansion they stated that they called on Mr. McKinley for the sole purpose of explaining to him the exact situation in the states and what had led up to the present condition of affairs. They said they assured the president they did not want Federal troops sent to the state or any Federal interference whatever. Had not asked for congressional investigation, they said, nor would they ask for one as they did not want it.

HELD UP A TRAIN.

Lone Robber Seizes Two Thousand Dollars and Makes His Escape.

St. Joseph, Mo., March 23.—A lone robber wearing a false face with a black mustache painted on the mask, held up the southbound Kansas City, St. Joseph and Council Bluffs train four miles south of Hamburg, Iowa, at 1:30 o'clock this morning. The train was in charge of Conductor Billy McGee. Flagman Moore was first accosted to the rear end of the train. Using Moore as a shield the robber went through the sleeper and chair car, getting $2000 in cash and a gold watch. He pulled the bell cord and when the train slowed down, jumped off and escaped in the darkness. The robbery was reported to the Burlington general offices here from Langdon.

DELAGOA BAY AWARDS.

Secretary Hay Advised They Will Be Made in a Few Days.

Washington, March 23.—Secretary Hay has been advised by counsel for the claimants in the Delagoa Bay railway arbitration proceedings that the award of the arbitrators will be announced in the next few days. The dispatch came from Berne. There is no doubt that the award is favorable to the claimants. The only question involved is as to the amount.

The Portuguese government believes that the award will not be more than $1,000,000, though the claimants expect it will be several millions more. The Portuguese government has been collecting the necessary funds with which to satisfy the award as soon as it is rendered.

DOUBLE HANGING.

Two Negroes Die on the Gallows at Bonham for Murder.

Bonham, Tex., March 23.—Two negroes, Nevedus Morris and Frank White were hanged here at 12:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Morris killed his wife and child last August and White ambushed and shot Beverly Johnson, the purpose being robbery.

Three thousand people attended the execution. Both men died game, professing religion.

Shot by a Boy

Houston, Tex., March 23.—A fight between two school boys which resulted in one shooting the other occurred at the Hamilton street school. It seems that the boy who did the shooting is in the habit of carrying a pistol and that the fight was brought about by one trying to bully the other. The shooting was done with a small 22-calibre pistol and the bullet hit the boy in the temple, but it glanced off, just breaking the skin.

Mississippi Populists.

Jackson, March 23.—Dr. R. K. Prewitt, chairman of the Populist executive committee, has issued a call for the Populist state convention to assemble at Jackson on April 26 for the purpose of selecting delegates to the convention at Cincinnati. The call is issued without the formality of a meeting of the executive committee.

Fine Herefords Coming to Texas.

Kansas City, March 23.—At the sale of fine Hereford cattle at Independence, Lillian, a 2-year-old heifer, brought $650 and will go to the Lone Star herd owned by Scharbauer Bros., at Midland.

Some of the friends of Hon. John A. Wayland from other counties have asked in case the nominating convention did not instruct for United States senator in this district, what would be his position if nominated and elected? We desire to say in that event, Senator Wayland's views are in line with those of Mr. Bailey and he would so vote. Senator Wayland is taking no active part in the United States senatorial race, but is looking after his own canvass, knowing that the democrats of this district will determine at the primaries their preference for United States senator.—Calvert Courier.

ABOUT PREPARED CHALK.

Ever have a druggist to tell you, while purchasing your prepared chalk, to wash it? WASHINGTON NEWS.

Puerto Rican Bill Takes up the Time of the Senate.

Washington, March 23.—Almost the entire session of the senate yesterday was spent in the discussion of the conference report upon the Puerto Rican appropriation bill. The Democratic senators manifested a disposition to criticize the restoration of the house provision covering future collections of revenues, finding in this action the desire on the part of the Republicans to continue the Dingley tariff. Speeches were made on these lines by Messrs. Bacon, Cockrell, Jones of Arkansas, Berry and Allen.
The Republicans met this taunt with a proposition to take a vote immediately on the house Puerto Rican tariff bill.
Senator Proctor objected, however, on behalf of the Republican free traders, and when he indicated a willingness to agree to a vote next week Senator Pettus put an end to the proceedings by calling for the regular order of business.

After a spirited discussion extending over three days the Lord bill relating to second-class mail matter was recommitted by the house to the committee on postoffices.
The majority in favor of the motion to recommit was so decisive that it is regarded as unlikely that the measure will appear again during the present congress.
Mr. Lord said after the vote was announced that this was the third time and out, so far as he was concerned.
The vote on the motion was 148 to 93,
with 16 present and not voting.

Change in Former Plans.

Washington, March 23.—The Republican caucus committee of the senate authorized Senator Foraker in definite terms to propose a separation of the tariff feature from the Puerto Rican governmental bill and attempt to pass the house tariff bill without any amendment.
The programme is to vote down all amendments, if possible to do so, and pass the bill as it came from the house without any change whatever.
The element in the Republican ranks of the senate favoring free trade with Puerto Rico, decided in a conference to oppose any action looking to an early vote and ask for further time in case the question should come up.

WOMAN MURDERED.

Cassie Boone Slashed With Knives and Then Burned.

Wadesboro, N. C., March 23.—Particulars have been received here of a crime committed in Chesterfield county a few days ago. Cassie Boone, a young woman, was enticed from her home by four white men, carried to the woods nearby and assaulted with knives. The woman was first gashed with knives in the fleshy parts of her body, the cuts being from 4 to 12 inches in length; there were five such wounds. Then, with the blood flowing, the poor creature was set on fire and released into the wild woods to run screaming until she fell crying for help. A small braid around the forehead was the only shred of clothing left on the body.

Cassie Boone was 20 years old, the daughter of a small farmer. She was one quarter Indian. The girl's reputation is said to have not been good.

Mrs. Howard Gould Sued.

New York, March 23.—As Mrs. Howard Gould was stepping into her carriage
in front of her home Wednesday a man handed her a legal paper. This paper was an official notice to Mrs. Gould to appear in the Eighth district court and defend an action brought against her involving $85, the price of a waist of blue pauze and Russian lace. Mlle. Mirabella, a Fifth avenue dressmaker, is the plaintiff. Mrs. Gould claimed that the waist did not fit. Mlle. Mirebella contended that it was the perfection of the modiste's art. Payment for the garment was demanded and refused. After waiting many weeks Mlle. Mirabelle instituted proceedings and Lawyer Laski obtained from Judge Stiner the summons which was served upon Mrs. Gould.
Should Mrs. Gould appear and contend that the waist is a misfit, the plaintiff, it is said, will insist that the wife of the millionaire prove her assertion by trying the waist on in court.

Broke Up the School.

Paris, Tex., March 23.—The Baptist denomination at Hazel Dell, in the southeast portion of the county, near the Sulphur, has recently completed a new church building. They had been worshipping in common with other denominations in the schoolhouse. When the church was completed they demanded that they had placed them there for their own use, but had permitted the school to use them. The trustees refused the request. While the school was in session some of the members of the church entered the building and carried away the benches against the protest of the young lady teacher.

BECKHAM'S MILITIA.

His Men Reach Frankfort to Be Ready for Emergency.

GUARDING THE JAIL

Governor Beckham Says They Were Brought There to Protect Lives and Property—He Issues an Address to the People.

Frankfort, March 23.—The state troops recognizing Democratic Governor Beckham came here late yesterday afternoon and last night guarded the courthouse and jail and will do military duty under orders from Governor Beckham during the examining trials of Republican Secretary of State Caleb Powers, Captain John W. Davis and W. H. Coulton. The militia is also reinforced by 75 special deputy sheriffs who were sworn in by the civil authorities.

The Lexington company of 70 men under Captain Longmire were the first to arrive here. The men were drawn up in regular marching order at the station and marched to the courthouse. The sidewalks along the way were filled with people and troops were cheered by Beckham adherents at various points. The line of march did not pass the state house square where Governor Taylor's soldiers are quartered and the dual militia did not come face to face.

Captain Longmire marched at the head of his company, carrying a revolver, while each of the men carried two guns. It is understood practically the entire contents of the Lexington armory were brought here.

The indications are that the trial of some one of the defendants will be entered upon today. County Attorney Polsgrove says that all of the subpoenas for commonwealth witnesses have been served and unless some of the most important witnesses fail to come, the trials will be commenced. The commonwealth will demand that the defendants be arraigned separately.

County Judge Moore issued an order to Sheriff Suter directing him to exclude everybody from the courthouse during the trials, except attorneys, witnesses and members of the press.

There has been no confirmation here of rumors that armed bodies of citizens from the mountain sections are coming to Frankfort.

Governor Beckham issued the following address explaining his action in calling out the troops:

"To the People of Kentucky: In the present crisis which exists in our state, I feel it my duty to explain to you my position and to outline the policy which I intend to pursue in the earnest effort to restore peace, quiet and order to our commonwealth. It was the policy of my distinguished and lamented predecessor to conduct this vexed contest, which has so much agitated our people, in a way to commend his course to all lawabiding and conservative people of the state. That policy I have carried out to the best of my ability, and intend to continue in the same line.

"In calling out the militia to protect the courts in Frankfort I wish to say that no one is more adverse to military rule than I am. I believe it should be the last resort that any official should use and I lament the necessity that requires it at this time. As your chief executive it is my desire and intention always to rely more upon the law than upon the bayonet and I prefer to be supported more by the strong common sense and patriotism of our lawabiding people than by any military power whatever. Every honest citizen should submit without hesitation to the control of the constituted authorities and the courts, the great safeguard of our liberties.

"According to law the civil authorities of Franklin county have presented to me a statement of facts which shows that a condition of lawlessness is threatened here with which they are unable to deal, and they have called upon me for assistance. I have, in compliance with their call, ordered here certain state troops to place themselves completely under the authority of the sheriff of the county, with instructions that they shall assist him in protecting the court of this county from threatened intimidation, as well to protect the prisoners who are tried by that court. These troops shall be strictly under the control of the civil authorities in preserving order and protecting the dignity of the court, that justice may be done to all parties.

"I regret exceedingly the necessity that requires such action and that there should be any who would seek to interfere with the action of judicial tribunals in our state, but the condition exists and I must meet it. When the situation is such in your capital city that the judges in your courts and other officials need personal protection from bodily harm and threatened interference with their action, then I deem it my duty as governor of the commonwealth to give them such protection as they may need. Such is the situation here now and I intend that so far as I have the power to protect the courts, in my earnest efforts to uphold the law and protect the constituted tribunals, I call upon the good and lawabiding people of our commonwealth to aid and assist me not by physical force, but by moral support.

"We have placed our cause in the law and we must continue to reply on the law. Let no act of violence or lawlessness be committed anywhere and let our people who have shown such patience and conservatism heretofore continue to show it. My great trust and reliance is in the strong commonsense and integrity of the people of our state and trusting in that I believe that out of our present difficulty there will soon come peace, order and restoration of the law."

COMPROMISE MADE.

Carnegie and Frick Settle Differences by Forming a Stock Company.

Pittsburg, March 23.—The Carnegie Steel company, Ltd., becomes a stock company with a capital variously estimated at from $200,000,000 to $250,000,000, the famous 'ironclad agreement' is wiped out, all litigation between the partners in the Carnegie company is dropped and H. C. Frick, the former president of the company, virtually secures all he has contended for. These facts are embodied in an authorized statement issued by the Carnegie Steel company, Ltd.

To President Schwab is given credit for effecting this amicable arrangement.

ANDREW CARNEGIE.

From the first he was opposed to allowing the contentions between the partners to reach the courts. Unable to prevent this, after the litigation was begun, he bent his energies toward securing a settlement that would be satisfactory to all parties.

The parties interested have agreed upon a plan of reorganization, the new concern to be incorporated under the laws of New Jersey. The effect of the proposed reorganization will be to terminate all equity proceedings now pending. The stock and bonds of the new corporation are to be taken by the present owners themselves and not offered to the public as once contemplated.

Mr. Schwab will continue as the executive head of the new company.

MURDEROUS PREACHER.

He Slays and Burns to Death a Mother and Five Children.

Raleigh, March 23.—A negro, Tom Jones, commonly known in the country as "Preacher Jones," murdered Ella Jones and her oldest daughter, Ida, and then set fire to the beds in which lay the bodies of his victims and four sleeping children, ranging in age from a baby one month old, to the largest boy who was not more than five. The crime was committed at Garners, a little town five miles east, and the work was done with an axe. The murderer, according to the story of little 7-year-old Laura Jones, who escaped with her 4-year-old brother, deliberately struck the mother four times and then made two cuts into the body of the oldest child. He then fired the house and it was completely destroyed.

Pay of County Judges.

Austin, March 23.—The supreme court has answered the certified question in the case of John Farmer, county treasurer, vs. W. N. Shaw, from Harris county. The main question in effect was whether W. N. Shaw, county judge of Harris county, is entitled to a compensation of $3 per day while sitting as a member of the commissioners' court besides his salary of $1500 as county judge. The court answered the question in the affirmative.

Big Sale of Pine Land.

Lake Charles, La., March 23.—A deed was filed for record in the office of H. C. Gill, parish clerk, which provides for the transfer of an immense body of Calcasieu pine land. By the terms of the deed 29,359 1/2 acres of land are transferred by the heirs of the late M. T. Jones to the M. T. Jones Lumber company of Houston. The price paid for the land was $23,563.39, dated Jan. 1, 1900, and payable in 1913 with interest at 6 per cent per annum.

Given Damages.

Galveston, March 23.—The jury in the damage suit of John English vs. the Galveston, Harrisburg and San Antonio Railway company brought in a verdict for the plaintiff for $15,000. This is the second trial of this case, the jury in the former trial having returned a verdict for the defendant. The suit was brought for personal injuries alleged to have been sustained by the plaintiff, and he asked for $30,000.

Killing in Armstrong County.

Amarillo, Tex., March 23.—In a fight Thursday at Washburn, a station on the Denver Road, fourteen miles east of here, Joe Lightfoot, a prominent cowboy was shot dead with a shotgun. Jim Longue of the same place at once surrendered to the authorities.

Ice Sweep a Bridge.

St. Johns, N. F., March 23.—Ice floes in the Exploits river have swept away the railway bridge which cost $100,000. The express and mail trains on the way to this city have been unable to proceed. All have returned to Port Aux Basque.
